RETENTION OF JUDICIAL CANDIDATES

After serving a ten year term, judges in Pennsylvania then stand for retention – that means the voters either vote them to stay in office or not – they do not have an opponent. LIFEPAC sent questionnaires to all judges running for retention. The Allegheny County Bar Association asked that all questionnaires be directed to them and that none of the individual candidates living in Allegheny County answer them. Therefore on past experience LIFEPAC recommends that the following candidates be voted YES and all others NO.

ALLEGHENY COUNTY

Paul Luty

Jeffrey Manning

Kevin Sasinoski

WESTMORELAND COUNTY

Al Bell
